Terminal Disclaimer

The terminal disclaimers filed on 9/22/05 disclaiming the terminal portion of any patent granted on this application which would extend beyond the expiration date of US Applications 10/634,200 & 10/909,700 have been reviewed and are accepted. The terminal disclaimer has been recorded.

Reasons for Allowance

Claims 1-3 and 5-19 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The subject matter of the independent claims could either not be found or was not suggested in the prior art of record. The subject matter not found was the combination of one or more graft segments to be coupled to a multiple channel blood flow connector, the connector including a supply conduit and a delivery conduit integrally formed therewith and adjacently disposed with respect to one another, the supply and delivery conduits in fluid communication to one another through cooperating apertures in respective outer walls of said supply and said delivery conduit at an intersection therebetween, and wherein the delivery conduit has at least a first open end extending from said intersection and beyond a first perpendicular tangential plane of said supply conduit outer wall at a lateral side with respect to the intersection, such that a first open end of the delivery conduit is laterally spaced from the supply conduit outer wall, and the outer wall of the delivery conduit being formed at said first open end substantially along a plane in angular relationship with a plane parallel to a perpendicular cross-section of the delivery lumen, the angular relationship being between about 10 degrees and about 80 degrees therebetween, in combination with the other elements (or steps) in the claims.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
